The critical plaudits which have greeted Mark Bebbington's performances and recordings have singled him out as a British pianist of the rarest refinement and maturity. Increasingly recognised as a champion of British music, Mark has recorded extensively for SOMM "New Horizons" label to unanimous critical acclaim.

Mark studied at the Royal College of Music, where he was recipient of many prizes, and later in Italy with the legendary Aldo Ciccolini.

Projects for 2015/16 include continuing releases for the Somm label of both twentieth-century British piano music and further concerto recordings with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, appearances in major concert series and festivals, concerto performances with the London Philharmonic, Royal Philharmonic and Flanders Symphony Orchestras, a two-week European tour with the Czech National Orchestra, concerts in Israel with the Jerusalem Symphony Orchestra and London solo recitals. In October last year, Mark recently made a highly successful Carnegie Hall debut with Leon Botstein and the American Symphony Orchestra. In May of next year he returns to New York for his recital debut at Alice Tully Hall.
