

WOMEN OF THE WORLD

GLOBAL VOICES, UNITED

womenoftheworldmusic.com

 @wow_worldmusic

WOMEN OF THE WORLD

Women of the World brings musicians from across the globe onto a common platform to collaborate and create, not only through the sharing of music, but also to explore and celebrate the differences in ideologies and cultural tenets that exist in the daily lives of women all over the world.

Reigning National A Cappella Champions, the core vocalists are committed to excellence in music, combined with the practice of peace on a day-to-day basis.

“They are living, vibrant proof that the people of the world can play, sing, and work together in love and peace.” - Larry Bethune, Former Vice President of Student Affairs, Berklee College of Music

Since 2008, Women of the World has built up a repertoire spanning 26 languages, performed by an international family representing Japan, India, Italy, Haiti, Brazil, Mexico, Serbia, Kenya, Nigeria, and the United States of America.

Our commitment to create harmony in our communities has taken us to many different parts of the world, allowing us to collaborate with some truly inspiring organizations and leaders.

We were honored to inaugurate the 25th year anniversary of the Women's Refugee Commission with iconic actress, Meryl Streep, the keynote speaker

2013 - 14 was an incredible year of meaningful collaborations with United Nations, UN Women and Girl Up

In August 2014, we conducted a workshop at the Boston Children's Museum connecting Music & Science

Women of the World in Japan (Aug 2012) conducting a workshop with the children's choir that was to perform with us in Kumamoto.

We also participated in the Summer Festival of Kitaibaraki, one of the worst 2011 Tsunami and earthquake affected regions in Japan.

After a music therapy workshop at the Kennedy Day School for students, ages 3 to 22, with multiple, intensive special needs and challenges. A truly inspiring, and incredible learning experience for us.

Performing interactive concerts at the 92nd Street Y in New York for their artist residence series. We played 5 concerts, interacting and making music with 4,500 students from all over NYC.

With every collaboration, there is so much to share – not just musically, but also awareness about important global issues. In February 2013, Women of the World presented a multi-art production, “Koloro”, which featured a World Peace Choir, dancers, and guest artists from the Berklee community.

The concert was in support of the “Because I am A Girl” movement (run by PLAN) dedicated to empowering women and girls worldwide by promoting gender equality and girls rights.

Women of the World in Tulum, Mexico (August 2013) Our community work often involves improvisation sessions called “Circle Singing” sometimes accompanied by Crystal Bowls.

There is so much to be grateful for.
So much to learn, share, and experience.

Peace is not just a dream. Or a distant reality.
Peace is possible.
But it's up to each one of us to start practicing it daily.

www.womenoftheworldmusic.com