

Michael Brown

Pianist-Composer

Press Quotes

“One of the leading figures in the current renaissance of performer-composers.”

-The New York Times

“A young piano visionary” -The New York Times

“This formidable young pianist played a magnificent performance at Weill Recital Hall last week and clearly has more to offer.” -The New York Times

“...powerful technique and a vivid imagination.” -The New York Times

“The final [Schubert] Rondo is deliciously played, with all the perkiness and sparkle one could want.” -American Record Guide

“Brown’s own performance was exceptionally beautiful, from the spare, nocturne-like opening to the explosive toccata that closes it.” -The Washington Post

“...soloist Michael Brown played with great confidence and rhythmic flair.”

-Gramophone

“Brown is a brilliant young talent.” -New Haven Register

“The pianist was Michael Brown, a champion of Perle’s work. The jaunty precision he and Morlot brought to the music...made a cool, clean case for a Perle revival.

-The Seattle Times

“A performance of compelling artistry and power.” -The Seattle Times

“... a vividly characterized, rhythmically free-spirited account of the [Beethoven’s First Concerto] solo line.” -The New York Times

“...held the spotlight...played a lovely, subtly virtuosic cadenza for Mozart’s Piano Concerto No. 24...” -The New York Times

“darkly alluring...a confident young composer with a talent for precision” -The New York Times

“American pianist Michael Brown once again brought arresting ideas to his recital, which consisted of one work, Schumann’s Davidsbündlertänze. He was articulate, observant and logical.” -The Cleveland Plain Dealer
