Praised for his sensitivity and versatility, pianist Stephen Runge has been heard from Victoria to Halifax as soloist and collaborative artist, receiving special recognition for his frequent performances of chamber music and art song. Holding a Doctorate of Music in Piano Performance from l'Université de Montréal, Stephen has recorded all the major works for solo piano by Robert Schumann and is in demand as teacher, adjudicator, and clinician. Born and raised in Regina, Saskatchewan, Stephen is on faculty in the Department of Music at Mount Allison University in Sackville, New Brunswick, where he is currently Head of Music, Associate Professor of Piano, and Director of Mount Allison Local Centre Examinations in Music. In recognition of his outstanding teaching, research, creative activities, and service, Mount Allison has awarded him a Paul Paré Excellence Award in 2010, the J.E.A. Crake Award for excellence in teaching in the Faculty of Arts in 2014, and the Paul Paré Medal in 2020. For more information, please visit Stephen's website at stephenrunge.com.
